Notes

1. Happy trails, Candace! I think I speak for the whole cast and crew when I say it's been such a pleasure working with you once again. We'll miss you!
2. 'Twas an evening of costume misfortune. Figaro ripped his pants right down the CB seam during fight call, Cherubino's dress zipper broke (Wardrobe expertly pinned her into it), and Basilio ALSO ripped the CB seam of his pants during the Act II Finale.
3. We got a smaller-than-usual thud from the crash box tonight. Jerry was dealing with the zipper problem and got there just in time to drop it on the top, not the bottom.
